

Rufus Guy Hilton

April 27, 1945 - June 25, 2023

Mr. Rufus Guy Hilton, Sr. was born on April 27, 1945 in Clarendon County, Manning, SC to the late Johnny Hilton and Elder Annie Mable Hilton. He attended the public schools in Baltimore, MD. He departed this life on June 25, 2023.

Down through the years, he attended Zion Holiness Church of where he was baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of his sins under the leadership of the late Pastor Bishop Ruth Irene Allen where he was also baptized in Jesus' name. Rufus was filled with the Holy Ghost at Solid Rock Apostolic Faith Church, Inc. under the leadership of Pastor Barbara Abraham of Solid Rock Apostolic Church where he worshipped until he became ill. He was loved by many and he absolutely loved his church family.

Rufus' favorite hobbies were fishing, bowling and spending time with his family and friends. He also enjoyed making videos, DVDs and CDs for friends and family. He was employed at Morton Moving Company and Yellow Cab Co for a while. He loved people so much that he decided to become a self-employed Cab Driver to those in need for transportation.

Rufus G. Hilton will be deeply missed by his dear family and friends that loved and cherished him.

Rufus was wedded in holy matrimony to his ex-wife, Elizabeth Moore Hilton and from that union, GOD blessed them with four beautiful children, Wanda Allen (Torrance), Rufus Hilton, Jr., Demetrice Hilton (Nilo), LaTosha Hilton and one stepson, Rodney Moore, which he treated like his own son; eight grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by one brother, R.J. Hilton and one sister, Bernie Hilton.

He leaves behind six siblings; one brother, Johnnie Hilton (Carolyn); five sisters, Janie Hilton, Lillie Matthews, Annie Morant, Ruth Ann Hurtt, all of Baltimore, MD and Carrie Durant (Bishop Tommie) of Pensacola, FL; one sister-in-law, Lendora Hilton of Baltimore, MD.

He leaves behind one aunt, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends; a devoted niece, Dianna Ellis and a devoted sister-in-law, Carolyn Hilton.

“ Here in tears...just knowing of his passing , 2 years later..I am crushed..Mr Rufus was my driver for about 16 yrs..I even had him as a FB friend and tried to keep it up with him, sending Birthday wishes every year..The kindest man I have ever encountered. He started driving me before my daughter could talk and when she did, when she saw his car..."here come Mr Rufee"..my deepest condolences to his family.
