

Rufus Marshall

February 7, 1924 - September 17, 2020

RUFUS MARSHALL, the fifth child of the late Gable and Fannie Marshall, was born February 7, 1924 in Bucksport, South Carolina (Horry County). Rufus departed this life on Thursday, September 17, 2020 at home.

Rufus received his education in the public school system of Bucksport, SC. As a young man, he worked at the mill in South Carolina. At the age 22, Rufus relocated to Baltimore, MD, where he met and fell in love with the late Rebecca Lloyd

At the age 23, he obtained employment at Bethlehem Steel. Rufus retired September 1992 from the tin mill after 45 years of service.

Rufus learned of the Lord at an early age at Salem AME Church of Bucksport, S.C.

Pop (Uncle Big Boy) as we called him, loved life. Pop enjoyed watching baseball, cooking, dancing, and playing the lottery. Pop often sat on the stoop with his buddies, talking about the events of the day.

Pop loved being around family most of all. He was a very generous family man and well-liked by others.

Pop was preceded in death daughter, Lena Mary Marshall (Tugar).

Pop leaves to mourn; two daughters, Ernestine Barton and Vanessa S. Marshall; seven grandchildren Barbara, Melvin, Ronald, LaTasha, Elaine, Nicole, and Linwood; eight great-grandchildren, Michael, Taylor, Ronald J, Renard, Akeem, Colby, Joshua, Desire; twelve great-great-grandchildren; two sisters, Alretha McCray and Albertha Marrow; one brother-in-law, Willie Marrow; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends including Lena Mae, Nicole, Dwayne, Louis, Brother Rick and lifelong friend Melvin Moyd.

“ I am deeply sorry for your loss. Pops was one of the good guys, his memories shall never fade. I had the pleasure of meeting him a few years ago. It was like meeting family, because he would call me “girl”, even though Ernestine would say Pops that's "Peaches", he didn't care he called what he wanted and I answered. I became known to him as “girl” and I loved it and I loved him.

Words seem so feeble in moments like these. Life is so precious and death such a thief. The depth of your pain, I cannot comprehend, but I will stand alongside you in the darkness, my friend. Love is a bond that death cannot part, Pop's might be gone from your arms but still in our hearts.

Pop, you have fought the brave battle, now it's time for you to rest in peace. We will all miss you.

*Love you forever,
E. B. (Peaches) Bell*
