

Runette Davis

April 7, 1948 - May 4, 2009

Runette Davis, the daughter of Ernest and Elreda Davis, was born on April 7, 1948 in Clarendon County, South Carolina. She departed this life on May 4, 2009 at Good Samaritan Hospital. She received her education at Dunbar High School and later earned her Associate of Arts Degree at the Community College of Baltimore. Runette started working for the Baltimore City Public School System at the age of 18. She retired from Baltimore City Government after 35 years of dedicated service. Runette's proudest period of employment was working with Council Martin O'Malley as he transitioned to Mayor for Baltimore City. Runette was a faithful member of Mount Pleasant Church and Ministries and always looked forward to the inspirational teachings of Bishop Johnson and other Mt. Pleasant Ministers. Runette was an extremely caring person. She was a devoted mother who adored her only child. She dearly loved all of her family. She shared a special bond with Paulette and Prester Witherspoon whose friendship she cherished for many years. She loved reading, politics, history and geography. Runette would have an excellent contestant on the familiar game show "Jeopardy". Runette is preceded in death by one sister, Jeanette Thomas; two brother-in-laws, Clarence Thomas and Cephus Rodgers and one nephew, Troyon Henry. She leaves to cherish her memory her daughter, Vonda Marie Clark; her parents, Ernest and Elreda Davis; three brothers, Ernest Davis Jr., Tyrone Chessborough and Carl Davis; three sisters, Helen Davis, Barbara Rodgers and Bonnie Magwood; one brother-in-law, Milton Magwood; one sister-in-law, Rochelle Davis and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. True comfort comes from knowing that soon all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29). What a joy it will be for all obedient mankind to see this!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my sincere sympathy over the loss of your loved one. We all look forward to the time when mourning will be a thing of the past because 1Cor15:26 talks about a time when the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing. May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cot1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22)##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
