

Russell C. Jones

December 1, 1924 - August 6, 2008

Russell Jones, son of the late Lester and Mary Jones, was born December 1, 1924 in Durham, North Carolina. He went home to be with the Lord and Savior on Wednesday, August 6, 2008 after a brief illness. Russell attended the public schools in Durham, North Carolina. He left school to work the family land with his father at an early age. Russell later moved to Baltimore City to gain employment. Russell worked many construction jobs in the Baltimore City area. He was last employed with the Rocket Construction Company, which allowed him to do bricklayers work at the Johns Hopkins Hospital. Russell always talked about growing up in an era that required hard work and humbleness. No matter what the situation. Russell was a stern man and stood his ground for what he felt was right. Russell married the late Helene Watson, who preceded him in death almost three years ago. He is survived by: a devoted daughter, Rosemary Jones and son, Sesier J. Watson (both of Baltimore, Maryland); four grandchildren, Tracey, Omar, Shemeka and Brannia; three great-grandchildren, Tracey Jr., Yah'seo and Omar, Jr. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Mary Stewart of Smithfield, N.C.; sister-in-law, Thelma Hunter of Smithfield, N.C. and brother-in-law, Ernest Watson (Kay) of Fall River, Mass. He is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. His brothers James and Lester Jones preceded him in death.

“ Hello ! Jones ! May I send my condolences to you all. Lossing a loved one after 84 years breaks the circle of life. Our heavenly father cares so much about you all as 1 Peter 5:7 say. There is so much suffering in the world today. The time is coming when no one will ever die. Isa 25 :8.I am looking forward to that time coming and I know you all are too. May all the many cherished memories of Mr. Russell keep supporting you all on life journey.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
