“ Hello to the family and friends of Mr.fisher.I would like to offer my condolence.Even after a person has been deceased for some time there is still pain of the loss of a love one.The one thing that can help ease the pain is comforting thoughts from the bible.One such thought is found at acts 24:15, it says that there is going to be a "resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous".This shows us how loving our heavenly father Jehovah is.Another comforting thought is that our dear loved ones that fall asleep in death are not in pain,but actually in a peaceful rest with no problems.The Holy scriptures tell us that they are conscious of nothing at all.(Ecc 9:11)These are a few thoughts that are comforting that I wanted to share with you.##imported-begin##O.Crosby##imported-end##

“ I would like to send my condolences at a time of much heartache and grief. I pray that the comfort of God will bring the healing to all those affected over this lost. How blessed we all are to know despite the painful effects of death our God Jehovah have promised a relief from our enemy death. Rev. 21:3-4 states death will no longer exist and will no longer cause mourning nor out cry or pain anymore. He say's death will be swallowed up according to Is. 25:8-9. However Jehovah's greatest promise he say's, the dead will live again according to Is. 26:19. That is truly a wonderful hope. Our very loved ones lost to death will live again. Yes their state is temporary like a sleep.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
