

Russell Christopher Veney

July 26, 1959 - November 27, 2013

Russell C. Veney, 54, of Baltimore passed away on Wednesday, November 27, 2013.

He was born in New York, NY on July 26, 1959, to Bernard Veney and the late Dorothy Veney. Russell attended Catholic schools in New York until moving to Columbia, Maryland in 1975. He is a 1977 graduate of Columbia's Wilde Lake High School.

Russell was an independent and passionate young man with an easy smile and compassionate heart. He loved sports and although he was seldom the biggest individual on the court or in the field no one had more heart or desire to win. Russell was a teammate and a coach. His advice was always straightforward and his loyalty unquestioned. Russell was an excellent artist, outstanding cook and enterprising entrepreneur. He was the uncle that spoiled you and the co-worker that shrugged off aches and pains and got the job done. He worked the past 13 years for Scientific Specialties Service. Russell's personality lit up the room and he had the uncanny ability to make people laugh. Russell lived and will continue to live in the hearts and memories of his family and friends forever.

Russell was preceded in death by his mother Dorothy and his beloved Grandmother Maggie Duffy. Russell is survived by his companion, Annette Brown her mother Ms. Lorretta Cunningham and family; his father Bernard Veney, his siblings, Anthony, Gregory, Andrena Albury, Darryll, Claudia Manigault, Valerie Veney and Phyllis Mills many cousins; nephews; nieces; in-laws and dear friends.

“ Each time before we hung up, we said I love you regardless, after I mailed you the poem. I am so glad you were touched by my words and even though today makes eleven years since you've been gone, I think about you every day and I still love you, regardless.

“ Our prayers goes out to the family. Russ was a very good friend of Charles and Andrea.
We love being around his company and having a good time. He was famous in making the Chili that everyone love.
May the memories you share and spent with us will never be forgotten.
Rest in peace Russ.
Love
Andrea and Charles Phifer

“ Good morning Veney Family and love one's. I met Russell over 18 years ago Phyllis brought him over to help me move. How I remember him so well is because I was expecting Phyllis and Troy Godchild Lauren who is now 18. The same day I met him we put him to work. We had a lovely time and I am glad I got to know him that day. R.I.P. Russell you will be missed.
