

Ruth Ann Jackson

December 1, 1906 - February 1, 2008

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Ruth Ann Jackson

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of Ms. Jackson. We don't come across many people that have lived as long as she was able to. (Psalm 90:10) However, the Bible promises even a longer life - everlasting life and the strong hope of our loved ones returning to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Acts 24:15, Revelation 21:3-5) May you receive much comfort and strength from these loving promises from the Bible. And may you continue close to Almighty God Jehovah and his son Jesus Christ. (John 17:3)###imported-begin##Sharon Hill###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ This message is lovingly sent to Douglas and Anne Boone. No words can express our sadness in the loss of your dear mother, my sister and our aunt. Though we are sad, we can rejoice because our loved one lived a Christian and joyous life. We definitely will miss her sweet smile, pleasant personality and her words of wisdom. To God be the Glory for sending us an angel for 101 years. Now she's gone on to heaven where she sits at the right hand of the Father. We love you and will miss you. Lovingly, Allene Griffith (Sister) Michael and Kimberly Dempsey (Niece and Nephew)###imported-begin##Kimberly Dempsey###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I wish to express my deep condolences to you on your loss. Ruth was certainly blessed with a long life, and I'm sure she witnessed a lot of things; and gained much wisdom. One day Ruth will be able to live again with the prospect of life eternal. Right now the average life span is 70 years according to Psalm 90:10, It also says that because of special mightiness some may make it to 80, and even sometimes to 100 like your loved one did. Yet that psalm goes on to say our years are filled with trouble and hurtful things; then those years quickly pass by, and away we fly. yet this is not the life Jehovah desired for us. He sent his son Jesus so that not only could we live for all eternity, but live a trouble-free life of peace and happiness. Psalm 37:10,11,29. One day, according to 2nd Peter 3:13 God will create a new earth with paradise conditions then Ruth and many others will be able to live the kind of life Jehovah intended for us. When she one day hears the voice of Jesus; she will come out of the memorial tombs, and she will never have to die again. John 5:28,29. May Jehovah's loving-kindness be with you at this difficult time, and remember to trust in the Lord with all your heart, and donot lean upon your own understanding. Proverbs 3,5. And remember that if we are obedient children of God then we will see our loved ones again who have passed away, and will be able to share eternity with them in happiness.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM