“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". Also, 1 Corinthians 15:26 lovingly informs us that our enemy death will be destroyed. May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ May you be comforted and strengthened by our heavenly father at this most difficult time. The death of our loved ones was never God's purpose, because he created life and he hates death. When we lose a loved one he is the only one we can turn to for answers, because only he knows the ways out from death, according to Psalm 68:20. His purpose is that all who exercise faith in the ransom of his son, Christ Jesus, will be able to live again. John 3:16 lovingly promises: "For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten son, in order that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life." That is Jehovah's wonderful purpose for the dead. I would like to share with you more information concerning Jehovah's wonderful purpose. If you are interested, please contact me at my e-mail address.##imported-begin##Rita Johnosn##imported-end##
