

Ruth B. Brooks

March 31, 1955 - May 18, 2003

Ruth Beatrice Brooks was born to Clark Brooks and the late Frances Thornton on March 31, 1955. She departed this life suddenly on May 18, 2003. Ruth was known to family and friends as Pep. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. She worked many, many jobs as a domestic worker and a food service worker. Ruth enjoyed arts, crafts and puzzles, but most of all she enjoyed the love and care of her grandchildren. They were the lights of her life. Ruth made numerous friends and was loved by all. Where there was Ruth, there was picture taking, she enjoyed the camera. Ruth leaves to cherish her memory: her father, Clark Brooks; stepmother, Margurite Brooks; two daughters, Ruth Roy, Adrienne Baker, (daughter, Nicole Richardson preceded her in death); nine grandchildren, two sisters, Renee Jones and Rhonda Booth; two brothers-in-law, Jonathan Booth and Thomas Jones; five step-sisters, Marguerite, Tanow, Denise, Vera and Debra Brooks; one stepbrother, Clark Brooks, Jr.; two devoted friends, Kenny Adams and Tyrone Edwards; and a host of aunts, uncles and extended family and friends. Pep you will truly be missed. Your love and laughter with that outspoken voice will always remain in our hearts. BROKEN HEART Our hearts are heavy and full of tears. We counted on each other to wipe away those tears. God heard you cry and He truly answered your prayers He called you home to dry your eyes and mend your broken heart. Your worries are no more. You saw the angel that went before you and you took hold of their wings and soared. From Your Loving Sisters, Renee and Rhonda

“ Sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Our family finds much comfort in the Bible in times of deep grief. John 5:28,29 has been of much comfort to us: "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May these words comfort you also.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
