“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mrs. Blandon. The Bible lovingly tells us that our enemy death will one day be destroyed.(1 Corinthians 15:26) Even more thrilling is the hope of our dead loved ones returning to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain.(Revelation 21:3-5,Acts 24:15 and Psalm 37:29) May you receive much solace as you ponder over the Bible's loving promises.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I wish to express my condolences on the death of Ms. Blandon. At a time like this words of comfort are dearly needed. These words come from Jehovah in his word the bible, where he promises to swallow up death forever at John 5:28. May these words give you comfort at this difficult time.##imported-begin##T.Taylor##imported-end##

“ I wish to extend my condolences to the family of Mrs Blandon. May you recieve much comfort from the God of all comfort who comforts us in all of our tribulations, and may you recieve much comfort and strength from the holy scriptures. 2nd Cor 1:3,4. The scriptures tell us that one day that old enemy death will be completely done away with, and noone will ever have to go through the sorrow of losing a loved one. 1st Cor 15:26 says: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Will we really see our loved ones again who have passed? Yes! Jehovah has sent his son Jesus who paid the ransom price to buy us out of sin and death that Adam put upon us. 1st Cor 15:21,22 says, "For since death is through a man, (Adam), ressurection from the dead is also through a man."(Jesus). "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." That is Jehovah God"s promise to us, and his word never fails. Isaiah 55:10,11. Please find much comfort and strength in his wonderful promises.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
