

Ruth Adams Boswell

November 23, 1945 - July 3, 2010

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven.
Ecclesiastes 3:1

Ruth Adams Boswell peacefully slipped into eternal rest on Saturday, July 3, 2010 with her family by her bedside. As one of nine children, she was born on November 23, 1945 to the late Eugene and Flossie Banks Adams.

Ruth was educated in Pittsylvania County Public Schools. She graduated number two in the class of 1964 from Southside High School in Blairs, VA. She received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Political Science and a Masters in Education and Supervision from Virginia State University in 1968 and 1971 respectively. In 1966, while a student at VSU, Ruth pledged Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

In 1972, Ruth was joined in Holy Matrimony to Earl Lynwood Boswell. From that union was born one son, Adam Sterling Boswell.

Ruth was employed with Richmond Public Schools for 33 years having retired in 2003. She had a love and passion for working with children of Richmond Public Schools. She returned the same year to serve as a Reading Tutor with the children at Swansboro Elementary School. Ruth was committed to education and improving the quality of life for students, young and old. She continued to work at Swansboro until March 2008, when she was diagnosed with a malignant brain tumor.

She was preceded from this life by her parents and four of her siblings. Gone home before her are brothers, Eugene, Jr., Willie, David, and Wister. Left to cherish her memory are her husband, Earl L. Boswell; a son, Adam S. Boswell and grandson Sean Boswell; two sisters, Odessa Smith (Gus) of Mechanicsville, VA., Flossie Adams of Danville, VA.; two brothers James Adams (Geraldine) of Hampton, VA., Arthur Adams (Jimmie) of Pine Bluff, AR.; one brother-in-law Richard Boswell (Gloria) of Atlanta, GA.; devoted caregiver, Shelia Price, several nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
