

Ruth E. Chambers

January 31, 1926 - January 19, 2004

Ruth Chambers, wife of the Oscar Chambers, was born on January 31, 1926 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on January 19, 2004 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in the Baltimore public schools. She worked at different jobs. Later in life she married Oscar Chambers; they were married for over thirty years. Ruth was a very kind and beautiful lady. Everyone who knew her will miss her. She had many friends in her building. She is loved by all. My Mom! She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Minnie E. Jones; grandson, Byron Brian Madison; sister-in-law, Starshell Stange; stepdaughter, Vanda Chambers; and a host of other relatives and friends. Through sickness and pain she always stayed the same. Daughter Minnie For each life you've touched over the years in a special way, For each kind word you've spoken, thoughtful deed you've done; For each warm hug and reassuring smile For each of these wonderful things came love. Grandson Byron

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the Family & Friends of Ruth E. Chambers: My sister and I would like to express our sincere condolences. We know that Ruth E. Chambers will be missed by all who loved her. When the enemy death strikes, grief can be great. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises at Isaiah 25:8 to "...swallow up death forever". He also promise to bring back our dearly beloved ones into a beautiful paradise-Acts 24: 15, Luke 23:43. I pray that you rely on God's many promises to help you cope with your loss.##imported-begin##Denise##imported-end##
