

Ruth E. Dorsey

November 12, 1939 - February 2, 2009

RUTH DORSEY, daughter of the late Philip W. and Elise Smith, was born on November 12, 1939 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on February 2, 2009 after a lengthy illness. She received her education at Dunbar Senior High School in Baltimore. She became an employee at Eastern Product Company where she remained for over ten years. She was married to the late George Dorsey. At Future Care Nursing Home, she became dedicated and devoted to going to church on Sundays. "Thanks be to God." Ruth had made many friends and touched many lives during her stay at Future Care. She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Doreen Carter; stepdaughter, Debra Dorsey; son-in-law, Brian Carter; two sisters, Glender L. Jenkins and Margo Smith; four brothers, Antoni Fonseca, Leo Fonseca, Phillip W. Smith Jr. and Otto Smith; sister-in-law, Mary Fonseca; brother-in-law, Harry Jenkins; five grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives and friends including her best friend, Big Dave.

“ *On behalf of the Greater Covenant Ministry we would like to extend our our heart fely sympathy to the family of Mother Dorsey... Scripture says that Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal... Our hearts were sadden when we heard the news of Mother Dorsey going from earth to Glory but then our spirits began to rejoice when we read in the Holy Record that We shall live and not die to declare the works of the Lord...We know that Mother Dorsey is gone from this side but she now resides with God the father.... Her precious memories will last on forever in our hearts..The Nursing home staff and residents will sorely miss her... The songwriter declares that my hope is built on nothing less than Jesus Blood and his righteousness we dare not trust the sweetest frame but holy lean on Jesus name on Christ the solid rock I stand all other ground is sinking sand.... Sleep on Mother Dorsey take your rest.... “ To The Family of Mrs. Ruth Dorsey, I am so sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. God’s Kingdom (Mat6:10) will end wars, sickness, famine, even death itself. No more doctors, hospitals, or disease of any kind at all. “No resident will say: ‘I am sick.’” (Isaiah33:24) No more funerals, wakes, cemeteries, morgues, or the misery that accompanies them. Death, our relentless enemy, will be vanquished at last. God “will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces.”—Isaiah 25:8. Warmest regards, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere condolences for the loss of Ruth. What happens to people when they die, and will we ever see them again, are questions many people ask when their loved one dies? All the answers are found in the bible, which contain the truthful promises of Jehovah God. He first of all calls death our enemy, and at 1st Cor 15:26 he promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing. As for the dead, Jesus lets us know that they are sleeping in Jehovah's memory, and one day he will wake them up. When Jesus ressurected a little girl, the people were weeping, but Jesus said to them: "Why are you weeping? "The young child has not died, but is sleeping. So he compared death to sleeping, and the account says, and taking the hand of the young child, he said to her: "Maiden, I say to you, "Get up! And immediately the maiden rose and began walking, for she was 12 years old. You can read this entire account of this wonderful ressurection at Mark 5:38-43. Jesus gave us a preview of the great ressurection that will soon take place in which millions will be brought back to life. John 5:28,29 says, "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things to a ressurection of life. So the ressurection is the means by which the dead will come to life. What a loving father we have who never forgets us even when we die. May these wonderful promises from Jehovah bring you much comfort, and a hope to cling to for tomorrow, and may your precious memories of Ruth bring happy thoughts to your hearts.##imported-begin##R
