

Ruth E. Lamma

December 16, 1928 - February 8, 2005

Ruth E. Lamma, daughter of the late Joseph J. Lamma and Viola Green, was born on December 16, 1928. She departed this life on February 8, 2005, after a short illness. She received her education in Baltimore City public schools. She was employed by City Hospital since the age of sixteen. She retired from City Hospital and joined Francis Scott Key, where she retired after working over 47 years. Although Ruth never bore children of her own, after the passing of her sister, she became the mother and grandmother of many children. She did excellent crochet work, and would often surprise a friend or a family member with a beautiful crocheted blanket or a new sweater set. Ruth loved to watch baseball. She loved to listen to gospel music every Sunday morning. Ruth leaves to cherish her memory: one brother, Joseph Lamma; one sister, Jean Feldman; one sister-in-law, Doris Lamma; special nieces and nephews, Sheila Simms, Joann Cloude, Tyrone Cloude, Larry Cloude, Darnell Cloude, Frederick Cloude, Viola Cloude and Esther Hairied; a host of other nieces, nephews, and relatives and a very special friend, Roslyn Anderson.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences during this time of your loss. May you find comfort in knowing that "God is near to those broken at heart and those crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalms 34:18) Isn't this a comforting thought? Please find comfort in the Bible's message.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. Death is something we never get used to. 1 Corinthians 15:26 lovingly promises that the "enemy death" will be done away with. For our loved ones who passed away in death Daniel 12:2 states that they will "wake up to indefinitely lasting life" Matthew 5:5 brings out that the location will be on a paradise "earth". May these promises give you comfort and peace.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family of Ruth E. Lamma, my deepest condolences on the death of your loved one. The bible is full of words of comfort. At John 5:28-29, it speaks of a time in the near future when those in God's memory will rise again. This is a sure promise for at Hebrews 6:18, it tells us that it is impossible for God to lie. May you along with the family find comfort in these scriptures.##imported-begin##Albert Washington##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God, Jehovah says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia##imported-end##
