“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mrs. Carter. I am always amazed by such longevity! However, I remember that our Creator never intended for us to get sick, grow old and die. Our Creator's purpose will be realized. He intends to get rid of death. (First Corinthians 15:26) Also, he will bring many back to life. Acts 24:15 lovingly confirms by stating: "There is going to be resurrection." May you receive much comfort, hope and strength every time you think about these wonderful promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Dear Carol and Family: Ms. Carter was an amazing woman; she touched many lives as an educator and friend. Know that your mom is with the Father and no longer suffering. She and Carla are finally together rejoicing in the Lord. To God be the glory. With deepest sympathy, Diane##imported-begin##Diane##imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere and heartfelt sympathy for your loss. Please find comfort in God's promise of a resurrection for the dead. The bible at Daniel 12:2 tells us this wonderful news, "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." All of our dead ones are asleep in God's memory, and one day his son Jesus will wake them up to enjoy everlasting life. John 5:28,29 makes this wonderful promise: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus's) voice and will come out; those who did good things to a resurrection of life. May this wonderful promise from Jehovah God give you much comfort, and a wonderful hope to cling to.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
