“ Kim, Words cannot express the sadness I am feeling. Sis Randolph was one of the few people that made me feel welcome when I joined the church. God will be receiving a wonderful, sweet and caring individual. Be comforted to know that she will be "Safe in His Arms".##imported-begin##Angela Bolling##imported-end##

“ To the Randolph Family: This is difficult to accept. Ruth bounced back so many times. My mom was her lifetime friend. I became her Chaplain at MCV and she fought a great battle. I know her reward is in heaven. I pray for your strength in the Lord. We will always be family and Ruth's wonderful smile will bring bright memories. Stay close to each other and take care of your Dad as your Mother would. I love you all. Pat##imported-begin##Rev.Pat Preston Perez##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Ruth Elizabeth Cotman Randolph. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of His Son, Jesus Christ, and come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S.
