

Ruth Freeman

May 19, 1917 - April 8, 2002

Ruth E. Freeman was the daughter of William and Nancy Eaton of Durham, NC. She finished her education in North Carolina then moved to Washington, D.C. Later she married Chester Davis and of this union two children were born, Jean and Chester Jr. Later, after divorce, Ruth remarried the late Rev. Leon Freeman. Ruth was active many years in her home church peace Baptist in Washington. Later she and her husband joined Macedonia where she attended until her health failed. In 2001 she decided she should not live alone and moved with her daughter in Baltimore. On March 19, 2002, Ruth was admitted to Northwest Hospital. There God called her home. Ruth leaves to mourn: one daughter, Jean Giles of Baltimore; one son, Chester Davis Jr. of California; seven grandchildren, great-grand's, great-great-grand's, nieces, nephews, sisters-in-law, cousins, friends and neighbors.
