

Ruth Johnson

May 25, 1918 - September 25, 2010

RUTH JOHNSON, daughter of Franklin and Eliza Johnson, was born on May 25, 1918 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on September 25, 2010.

She attended Frederick Douglass High School and later worked for Anna Shuger for over thirty years.

Ruth was one of the kindness and loving person, who didn't have a harsh word for anyone. She loved reading anything with words. Music was another one of her favorites, especially the "Big Band Era," with Ella Fitzgerald at the top of the list.

Her brothers, Clarence and Williams; and sisters, Alice and Mary preceded her in death. She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Patricia Miller; brother, Charles; sister, Evelyn; and many nieces and nephews.

THE LIGHT AND THE WAY

As you walk along life's pathways
Through the night and through the day
You will never lose directions

If you let God lead the way.

For His love can pierce the darkness

And make shadows disappear

And His light reveals the grandeur

As to Heaven you draw near.

“ Ruth Johnson

“ To the family of Ruth Johnson -

I see that Ms. Johnson lived a life beyond what the Bible calls "special mightiness." (Psalms 90:10) During your difficult time, please take comfort in the message of hope that is found in God's word the Bible. It'll let you know it is possible to be reunited with Ms. Johnson in the near future. And at that time she will have the prospect of enjoying perfect health, and she will never have to die again. This is not wishful thinking! Jesus Christ boldly promised: "Just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to. Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus'] voice and come out." (John 5:21, 28, 29). After the this hope is fulfilled God will make it possible for her to live forever without suffering. At Revelation 21:4, it states "[God] will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore."
