She was a committed and dedicated member and she loved her church and her church family. She faithfully served in the Missionary Ministry, Christian Women Workers, Usher Ministry and Culinary Ministry until her health began to fail. She was known for her delicious meals especially her sweet potato pudding, potato soup and sweet tea.

To know Ruth was to love her. She truly enjoyed life and her family. Ruth loved her pig Piggy-Wiggy and her monkey Miss Penney. She touched the lives of many with her presence and her sweet smile. She leaves a legacy of love.

She leaves to cherish her memory two nieces, Aretha Ellett and Rosalind Flippen (Chase); three great-nieces, two great-great nieces, five great-nephews and four great-great-nephews a devoted cousin Ferdella Tyler, two
