RUTH ALBINA JONES, daughter of the late Richard and Laura Arnold, was born on December 15, 1935 in Hartsville, South Carolina. She departed this life on February 23, 2012 after a lengthy illness.

Ruth grew up in various cities with her brothers and sisters after the death of her Mom at the age of two. She received a high school diploma from Booker T. Ruth worked at Essex Community College, Brager Gutman's, Hecht Company and Stewart Department Store as a Custodian. However; after her health began to fail, her husband encourage her to stay home and be a homemaker. She cooked, cleaned and looked after her family. In her pastime you could often find her cutting out patterns and making clothes. She will be missed dearly.

I believe this is what my sister Ruth is saying.....Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free, I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took his hand when I heard him call I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work, to play. Tasks left undone must stay that way, I found that peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss oh yes, these things I too will miss. Perhaps my time seemed all to brief, don't lengthen it now with undo grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee, God wanted me now, he set me free. Love your Jesse and Dorothy Arnold

(singing) I've had some good days, I've had some hills to climb, I've had some weary days and some sleepless nights, but when I look around and think things over all of my good days outweigh my bad days and I won't complain.....R.I.P. Aunt Ruth

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
