

Ruth Lenora Johnson

May 14, 1927 - October 29, 2002

Ruth Lenora Johnson, daughter of the late Eddie James and Ruth Johnson Orrbright, died after a brief illness on October 29, 2002. Her aunt and uncle, the late Edythe and Walter Burke, reared her. Lenora, as family and friends knew her, attended the Baltimore City Public Schools and was a graduate of Morgan State College. In 1985 after thirty years of employment, Lenora retired from the Department of Social Services where she was a social worker and later and Income Maintenance Supervisor. Lenora loved attending the Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church where she was a member for many years. During her tenure at Mt. Lebanon, Lenora was the first announcer for the Mt. Lebanon radio broadcast capacity for several years. Lenora also served on the Hospitality Committee. In her later years, Lenora was matriarch of her family and gave her love and guidance in many special ways. She was "Aunt Lenora" to all of the younger cousins. Lenora enjoyed traveling, shopping, and being with family and her many friends. She also had great joy in her relationship with her godchildren, Tammy Fortune ministry that began in 1971. She served in this and Jeremy Freeman and a life long friend, Lydia Brown. Preceding her in death were her twin sisters, Doris Douglas and Dorothy Orrbright. A devoted cousin, Barbara B. Sembly, with whom she shared a sisterly relationship, and a devoted niece, Robin Willis, survives her. Also mourning her loss are John Sembly, Tony, Beth, and Jonathan Sembly, Leroy and Nicholas Willis Hazelle Cole, and other relatives and friends. The family wishes to thank, Rev. Moyd and the Mt. Lebanon Church family for their many calls, visits, and prayers during Lenora's illness
