

Ruth M. Papino

December 6, 1933 - September 4, 2009

Ruth M. Papino, daughter of the late George & Gertrude Papino, entered the world on December 6, 1933 in Jacksonville, Florida. She was called home on September 4, 2009 after a long journey. Born in Jacksonville, Fl., she moved to Baltimore, Md. when she was four. Ruth Papino was one of eight children; Dorothy Lloyd, George Papino (deceased), Roy Papino (deceased), Lois Pryor (deceased), Naomi Cook, James Papino (deceased), and Shirley Middlebrook. A devoted mother, Ruth was blessed with four loving children, Samuel Papino, Diane Harrison, Deborah Cordova and Douglas Butler; one daughter-in-law, Annette Papino, one son-in-law, Robert F. Harrison; eleven grandchildren, Tonia Perry, Felicia Capers, Tynesha Papino, Kenjuan Harrison, Dayel Harrison, Robert M. Harrison, Nicole Harrison, Jason Cordova, Wilrosea Moncur, Elise Moncur and Tiwana Mpncur; seven great grandchildren; Keyara Moncur, Kiara Scribner, Isaiah Capers, Joshua Capers, Krystal Ringgold, Kareim Cordova and Terrence Scriber. Ruth accepted Christ at an early age, introducing Christ into her home and to all those who were fortunate enough to cross her path. She received her education in Baltimore City Schools and attended the House of God Church working to bring others to Christ. She loved to bring God into people's lives through her singing and preaching. Her legacy lives on through her eleven grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

“ I did not get to know Ruth. But I have gotten to know her through her daughter and my brother. My wife , Celseste has spoken lovingly of her and tried to make me remember. Diane and my nephews and niece, my condolences go out to you at this difficult time. Just keep your hand in the Lord and he will see you through. God Bless###imported-begin##Edward L Harrison##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy. I too know the pain of losing someone dear. May you find comfort in this wonderful promise made by God: 'He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more' (Revelation 21:3,4). “ Grandma, I know all good things come to an end, however i never thought i'd see this day come to pass. I've been blessed to have you in my life for 30years. I love you and miss you so much. Every important milestone or event in my life, you were there. You always told me how proud you were of me and my siblings. My life is a little less bright now with you gone. You were such a beautiful spirit with such strength and tenacity. Thank you for giving me my mother and always filling our life with love, laughter, song, the lord and telling it like it is. Though I am in pain, I'd rather deal with an emotional pain that will ease in time then to see you go through physical pain preventing you from enjoying doing what you love best in life. Though no longer flesh bound I know you will be there for all my future accomplishments, as I hold cherished memories forever with me. Now in the arms of the lord with our loved ones lost, you are closer to me now, watching over us all. And if I keep loving the lord as you did, I know I will see you again. Loving you forever, Dayel...##imported-begin##Dayel Harrison##imported-end##

“ Grandma, You taught me that no matter what family comes first. Thank you for taking me and my sisters in when no one else would. Thank you for loving us like your own kids and teaching us that GOD is always the final answer. I thank you for the times that you made me laugh and cry. I will forever miss you but I will never forget you. I know you are saving a place for me in heaven. Keep singing his praise. I love you.##imported-begin##Wilrosea Moncur##imported-end##

“ Grandma, you were one of my best friends. You made me laugh when you knew I was having a bad day. You supported all my dreams. I will miss sitting and watching tv with you. I will miss our phone conversations. I will miss your presence most of all. I'm happy that you're in a better place. We will see one another again. Love, Nikki##imported-begin##Nikki Harrison##imported-end##
