“ Manuel family and friends, please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of Ms. Ruth. It's the hardest thing is to lose someone you love. While time will make this hurt more bearable it will never take it away. We can find true hope and comfort from Gods word the bible. Jehovah being a loving father has made provisions to end the hurt that death causes both you and I by means of the ransom sacrifice of his son Jesus Christ. (Romans 3:24) Jesus then at John 5:28-29 assures us that there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous! To find out how we can welcome back those loved ones who have fallen asleep in death please visit www.jw.org or talk with Jehovah's Witnesses in your area. Please attend the local observance of the Memorial of Jesus death to gain an even greater appreciation and knowledge of what that ransom sacrifice really means for us.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one.

The Bible reveals that it will be possible to be reunited with our dead loved ones in a new world in which there will be "no more death, suffering, crying, or pain."- Revelation 21:3,4 Contemporary English Version

*This reunion will be possible because "There is going to be a resurrection."- Acts 24:15
New World Translation*

May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope.

“ I would like to send my condolence to you dear loved ones. At a time like this, the hurt and sorrow is so fresh that comfort may be overlooked. When you have a quiet moment, maybe these words may comfort you. John 5:28,29a says..."Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."
