

Ruth Odessa Johnson

October 14, 1929 - December 14, 2008

Ruth O. Johnson was born on October 14, 1929 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Elnora E. Maker and the late Samuel B. Maker. She attended the public schools of Baltimore. Ruth's husband Preston Johnson and son Louis Price Jr. preceded her in death. Ruth accepted God as her personal Savior at an early age. She was a dedicated member of Davis Memorial A.M.E. Church for most of her life. Later, she became a member of Pleasant Hope Baptist Church. Ruth was employed at the Maryland Cup Co. for many years. Later she became a home provider for her family. By nature, Ruth was a kind person, never knowing a stranger. She shared whatever she had and opened her home to many. Talking was her greatest asset; and her extensive, yet humorous will be missed. Her value to her family cannot be overrated. She served as a link to each branch of the family line. Ruth was extremely loved and will be greatly missed by family and friends. Ruth leaves to cherish her memory her devoted and loving sister, Lucille White; two aunts, one uncle, nieces, nephews, cousins, a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I would like to express my condolences to all. May it help in some small way to know that others care and hope your days will be brighten on the journey of life ahead. We all long for better times free from sickness and pain and death. Our heavenly father will in the near future make the earth a paradise for mankind to enjoy. I am so looking forward to that happening as Ps. 145:16 gives a wonderful hope. I hope these words will give some comfort to you all. ##imported-begin##lillian crosby##imported-end##

“ *To the family, You have my deepest sympathy. I hope that you all can draw comfort from knowing that Ruthy expressed her love for you all by talking about you all to me daily. I will miss seeing her smiling face in the morning at Keswick. Our heavenly father Jehovah will see you all through this difficult time. “ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Revelation 21:3-5 tells us that death, sickness, pain and sorrow will be down away with. According to Acts 24:15 there is hope for our dead loved ones: "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful resurrection hope found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
