“ *To the family. I would like to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your loved one. I hope that you are able to find comfort in the words of Jesus Christ who said that, "the hour is coming in which ALL those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." So according to that scripture there is going to be a future resurrection of our dead loved ones. What a wonderful thought to reflect on. I hope that you are able to find comfort in looking forward to seeing all who have fallen asleep in death alive again, on a paradise earth with the prospect of everlasting life in view. “ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. Although it may seem like there is no comfort during this period, there really is a source of comfort for you. It is found through God's Word, the Bible. Please take a minute and read John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15. There it highlights the wonderful resurrection hope Jehovah holds out to us all. He is the comforter and promises at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 to "comfort us in all our tribulation." Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful hope.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To The Family, I want to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. I also want to share the comfort of John 5:28,29 which assures us of the hope that those who have fallen asleep in death will receive a "resurrection" back to life. Life on an earth restored to a beautiful paradise. Psalms 37:11 says, "The meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace." While we await that wonderful time please find comfort in these promises.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jordan##imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere sympathy to the family of Mrs Ruth. i would like to share a comforting word with you from the bible to help you to cope. When a loved one dies we wish we could have just one more day with them, but nothing we can do; no matter how many tears we shed we cannot bring them back. But Almighty God can, and it is his purpose for the dead to live again. As Psalm 68:20 says: "The true God is for us a God of saving acts; and to Jehovah the Sovereign Lord belong the ways out from death." He has given all authority to his son Jesus to bring the dead back to life, and one day they will hear his voice and come out of the memorial tombs. John 5:26-29. The obedient one of the earth will be able to be reunited with these ressurected ones in true peace and happiness, because Psalm 37:11 promises, "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace." May you be comforted by these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##rita johnson##imported-end##
