

Ruth Davis Wiley

August 24, 1944 - August 6, 2024

Ruth Vivian Davis Wiley was born on August 24, 1944 to the late Oscar and Mary Elizabeth Banks, Harmony Village, Middlesex County, Virginia. Ruth peacefully transitioned to eternity, after a brief illness, on Tuesday, August 6, 2024.

Ruth graduated from the State of Virginia Public School Systems. Afterwards, she briefly moved to New York and then relocated to Baltimore, Maryland.

Ruth worked various jobs, including London Fog, The Jewish Community Service and the Johns Hopkins Bayview Hospital. Ruth retired as a self-employed Day Care Provider.

Ruth truly loved the Lord, and accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior. She was a long-standing member of the New Friendship Baptist Church.

Ruth met the love of her life, Jesse Wiley, and they were joined in holy matrimony on August 5, 1994.

Ruth loved her family and friends. She enjoyed family outings, parties. She enjoyed shopping and her favorite places to go were Boscov, Roses and the Thrift Store.

Ruth was preceded in death by her son Deno Taylor, two sisters Naomi and Shirley and two brothers Henry Charles.

Ruth leaves to cherish her memory, her loving and devoted husband, Jesse; sons, Therron Davis; Raymond Wiley; grandson, Marcus Taylor, great-granddaughter Kaylie Douglas; sister, Arnetta Kidd; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

“ The St. Clare Walker class of 1962 extends condolences to the family of our classmate Ruth Vivian Banks. Ruth was one of the tallest in our class and loved and participated on the Cheering Squad (Leader) for both the boys and girls basketball teams for the entire five (5) years. Arnetta and extended family we want you to know that our prayers are with you always but we also acknowledge the will of God. Remember the words: "For God so loved the world, that He gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life" John 3:16 KJV. Rest well "classmate" we loved you, but God Loved you best.
