

Ruth Williams

July 28, 1915 - August 5, 2005

RUTH ALEASE (nee Arrington) WILLIAMS, daughter of the late Cephas and Louisa Arrington, was born July 28, 1915 in Baltimore, Maryland. After a lengthy illness she departed this life on August 5, 2005. After being raised at the Faith Baptist Church, she found newer meaning in the Third Church of Christian Science. She received her education at Dunbar High School in Baltimore, Maryland. From there she graduated valedictorian from Coppin Normal College (now Coppin State University), Morgan College (Morgan State University) and Cortez Peters Business School. She left employment at the Social Security Administration to start her own business. On the first floor of her home at 1120 E. Monument Street, her "Modern Business Service" flourished as she provided mimeographing, accounting, typing and tax computation for local churches and for businesses in the area. She was a notary public and prefaced legal briefs as well. She could type over one hundred words per minute on manual typewriters, and even typed on Hebrew typewriters to produce newsletters for a Gay Street merchant. She was able to speak German, French, Spanish and some Hebrew. Ruth enjoyed playing word games, watching Jeopardy on TV and listening to classical music. She was able to realize her dream of owning and being able to play on her own baby grand piano. She is preceded in death by her late husband, Cornelius Williams; four sisters, Roxanne Henderson, Annie Dorsey, Esther McNeal and Minnie Hatchett; and one brother, Cephas Arrington. She leaves to mourn: one sister-in-law, Rosetta Arrington; cousins, nieces, and nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
