

RyKeise Shaw

October 23, 1997 - December 28, 2015

Rykeise Shaw was born in Baltimore, Maryland on October 23, 1997. He suddenly departed his life from a tragedy and entered into heavenly rest on December 28, 2015 in John Hopkins Hospital.

Rykeise was born and raised inside the Latrobe Home. He was educated at Johnston Square Elementary where he went to Latrobe Daycare School. He then went on to Midtown Academy where he was recognized for his special gift in the Arts. He loved to draw. He also was a member of the Chess Club and Martial Arts where he loved to take on challenges.

After graduation from Midtown Academy he then went on his journey to Bluford Drew. He also attended Patterson High and Baltimore Community High School where his journey ended.

He leaves behind to cherish his memory: his mother of seven children, Nicole Shaw; stepfather, Marco Beams; five brothers, Antwan Green, Jr., Nyzaiah Beams, Marco Beams, Jr., Zavier Beams and Mahki Beams; his little sister, Nakiya Shaw; grandmothers, Rosa Davis who he loved to call Na-Na and Patricia Burriss; grandfather, Gary Shaw and Leroy Salter; great grandmother, Geraldine Davis; five uncles, Damon Lomax, Duonne Lomax, Gary Shaw, Gary Shaw, Jr., and Tavon Shaw; four aunts, Marcie Cook, Keisha Swan, Cassandra Burriss and Kim Brown; a host of great aunts, great uncles, cousin and friends that he loved dearly.
