

Sadie Clara Evans

October 15, 1915 - August 13, 2012

Sadie C. Evans, daughter of the late Robert H. Edwards and the late Martha Ellen Edwards, was born on October 15, 1915 in South Hampton County, Virginia. She departed this life on Monday, August 13, 2012 at Elesy Manor Assisted Living.

She grew up in Virginia where she received her education. She loved different kinds of music.

Sadie moved to Baltimore, Maryland and later married James Evans. This union didn't produce any offspring, even though she loved children. She worked at several jobs before being employed by Continental Can Company, which became Crown, Cork and Seal from which she retired.

"Say Say," as she was affectionately known to some family members and friends, was easy going and at times quite comical. You understood her psyche if in later years, she raised her cane or fist against you, it was in play and not a gesture of combat.

"Say Say" was a member of Christian Life Church for many, many years. She was a faithful member who attended regularly until her health made it impossible. Usually attending both or all services, she gave both of herself and materially literally. In church she was known as "Hat Lady" and Tape Lady.

She was preceded in death by her husband, James Evans; three sisters, Ida Winmond, Annie Sharpe and Emily Booth; four brothers, Webster, Jasper, Floyd and Emmett Edwards; a niece, Debora Booth; and a nephew, Arnold Edwards. She is survived by: seven nieces, Rosalyn Booth, Brenda Richards, Laverne Tracy, Rhonda Harris, Marsha Edwards, Sharon Hall and Vanessa Edwards; five nephews, Rudolph McCrea, Robert Edwards, Jonathan Booth, Reginald and Rodney Winmond; a special friend, Delores Moore; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
