

Sadie A. Jackson

September 22, 1948 - January 6, 2020

Sadie Augusta Jackson was born on September 22, 1948 to the late Catherine Elizabeth Smith and Cleveland Jackson of Baltimore Maryland. She departed this life on January 6, 2020. She was the fourth of six siblings with her brother Robert Jackson preceding her in death.

Sadie received her education in the Baltimore City public schools. Sadie worked at Lexington Market in downtown Baltimore before she found her true calling of working to help others. She attended a class at the American Red Cross to become a Nurses Aid. She then spent over thirty years working for Ivy, Delcia Care home before becoming disabled.

Sadie gave birth to two children, a daughter Angeline and a son Anton. Sadie was a very devoted and loving mother. As a single mother, she always made sure her children were able to take advantages of all opportunities given to them.

Sadie enjoyed listening to oldies but goodies music and dancing. She was a huge Ravens fan and a horror movie fanatic. One of her favorite shows was the Walking Dead. Another activity she enjoyed tremendously was attending an adult day center called Hopkins Elder Plus. While there she enjoyed playing Wii bowling, socializing, and her favorite activity gambling at the casino. Staff would often comment on her contagious laugh and humor.

Sadie leaves to cherish fond memories: a daughter Angeline Williams; a son Anton Jackson; a son-in-law, Furman Williams Jr; four grandchildren, Angelene Housley, Amber Pray, Furman Williams III, and Daytwon Jackson;

two great grandchildren, Angelo Housley and Oliver Housley; two grand-son-in-laws, Michael Housley and Christopher Pray; four siblings, Cleveland Jackson, Thomas Jackson, Joyce Brooks, and Marcus Jackson; sister-in-law Daisy May Jackson; brother-in-law, James Books; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ *Anton,
You and your family have my deepest sympathy in the passing of your dear mother. I know from me asking about her that you have memories of her that will never fade. As someone that can relate to what you're going through, just know that you can reach out if you need to. You will continue to be in my thoughts and prayers. Love you my "work son/little brother".
