It's All Over....All the pain and grief is over; every restless tossing passed; I am now at peace forever; safely home at last. You must not grieve sorely for I love you dearly still. Try to look beyond earth's shadows, pray to trust out Father's will.

“ *To the family I count it an honor to have known Sadie. My only wish was to have known her longer. I remember the first time I met her, it was as if we had known each other all our lives. Knowing her was to love her. She always made me feel welcomed in her home. It was a trait that her children shared. I remember talking with her on the phone because a part of me needed to hear her voice. God bless you all. I am here if you need me. Sadie will be truly missed by me. Love you all.

Prayers and thoughts go out to you and your family. May this poem be a source of comfort to you. God Saw

*When I Must Leave You
"When I must leave you for a little while
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years.
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same.*

*Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you And hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!"*

“ TO THE THOMAS FAMILY:

My heartfelt condolences to Mr. Thomas and the Thomas children on the loss of your wife/mother. Ms. Sadie was a beautiful person, always with a smile on her face and kind word when seeing her in the stores.

Losing a mother is a very difficult thing to endure no matter how old we are at the time of their transition. Let the memories and laughs you shared help you make it day by day. Remember she has departed this earthly life, but her spirit will live within each of you until you meet again. Take comfort in knowing she is pain free and resting in the arms of her Lord and Saviour. God will take care of you all. God bless you all.
