

Sallie Bell Corley

June 25, 1921 - December 29, 2005

SALLIE BELL THOMPSON CORLEY, daughter of the late Jake and Isabelle Thompson, was born June 25, 1921 in Fairfield County, South Carolina. She departed this life on December 29, 2005 at the Genesis-Longreen Nursing Facility in Baltimore, Maryland. Sallie was reared and educated in Chester County, South Carolina and relocated to Baltimore, Maryland in 1941, where she later met and married the late Al Corley. She became employed with and retired from the former Continental Can Company. More importantly, she accepted Jesus Christ as her Savior and joined the Mount Ararat Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Pastor Samuel Redd. She joined the Missionary board and continued to be an active member until health problems prohibited her participation. Sallie had six brothers and two sisters that preceded her in death: Malfus Thompson, Jake Thompson, Tommy Lee Thompson, Charlie Mack Thompson, Marion Thompson, Coleman Thompson, and Bessie Thompson Spears and Mary Thompson. She leaves to cherish her memory: a loving daughter, Beatrice Thompson of Chester, South Carolina; one great-grandson, Master Ryan Kelsey Thompson, of Columbia, South Carolina; two sisters, Miss Mattie Thompson and Mrs. Daisy Thompson Stroud, both of Chester, South Carolina and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

“ *Bea, Cheryl & Ryan: In the deepest, quietest place in your heart there is One who is holding your world together, speaking to you the wisdom you need, and giving you strength to see you through. Trusting in the Lord is the answer to every problem. You are in our prayers and thoughts during this sad time. “ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
