

Sallie V. Hendrick

June 11, 1930 - December 7, 2020

Sallie Russell Hendrick was born to the late Desmus Russell and Lizzie Jones Russell on June 11, 1930 in Warren County, North Carolina. She departed this life December 7, 2020, after a long illness.

Sallie married James Hal Hendrick. They moved from Palmer Springs, Virginia to New Jersey and then to Maryland. From this union two children, James Alton Hendrick and Cassandra Wallica Hendrick were born.

She accepted God at an early age and was baptized at Berchett Baptist Church in North Carolina. Having so much compassion for others, she decided to become a nurse and studied at Reid Hall Nursing School and received her nursing degree. She was employed at Johns Hopkins Hospital for 20 years until her health began to fail.

After her husband's death, she met John Thompson. They were a loving couple who travelled a lot. They loved their families and visited them often out of state.

Sallie loved clothes and was a very stylish dresser. She was known to have a hat to match almost every outfit.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, James Hal Hendrick; son, James Alton Hendrick; brothers, Badger Russell, Alexander Russell, T. Russell, Douglass Russell, Edward Russell, Odell Russell and Desmus Russell, Jr.; sisters: Annie Belle Russell, Beatrice Seward and Mary Upshaw. Her finance, John Thompson, passed away in the Spring of 2020 at the age of 99.

She is survived by her daughter, Cassandra Wallica Hendrick Bennett; godson, Marvin Austin; granddaughter, Nichelle Jessup Hendrick; great-grandson, Nicholas Jessup; great-granddaughter, Kira Simor Jessup; nephews, Walter Desumus Russell, Troy Russell and George Seward; nieces, Lizzie Moody and Annie Russell Kearney; daughter-in-law, Phyllis Henrick; and a host of cousins and friends.

Sallie was a very quiet and caring person, unless provoked. Then you were very sorry you provoked her. She loved travelling and cooking. Sweet potato pie was a specialty.

We will all miss her greatly.
