

Sallie Jane Quarles

August 29, 1913 - November 23, 2011

Early Wednesday morning on November 23, 2011 SALLIE JANE QUARLES, b.k.a. Aunt Sallie was called home to be with Jesus. She was born on August 29, 1913 and was a devoted and loving wife, daughter, sister and aunt. She was preceded in death by her husband, Walter Quarles; her mother, Lucinda Hairston; her father, Percy Hairston; her only brother, Jesse Mose Hairston; all of her sisters, Virginia Betty Reed, Anna Lee Tinsley, Lucy Grant Elsey and Emma Rose Moyer.

Aunt Sallie was born in Axton, Virginia and was educated in the Virginia Public School System. At an early age she gave her life to Christ. Her favorite pastime was cooking (particularly biscuits) and listening to B.B. King. Aunt Sallie was a people person. She loved to dance. She was always laughing and telling jokes. She cherished her family and friends. She did domestic work until she retired.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two friends, Ester Louis Thomas and Mary Crosby; a niece, Marian Campbell (Wardell Ghee) and grand-niece, Tanya Dixon, who were her caregivers since 2005; a nephew, Anthony Tony Dixon, who she adored. Sallie also leaves to cherish her memory a host of other cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
