

Sallie H. Smith

December 4, 1922 - December 1, 2011

Sallie Hall Smith was born in Howard County, Maryland on December 4, 1922, the only child of Robert and Bettie M. Hall.

After a full life, she passed away December 1, 2011, following a lengthy illness. "Mama", as she was affectionately known by her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and many others intimately involved in her life, was educated in the Howard County, Maryland Public School System.

She married the late Thomas H. Ward, and out of that union, five children were born: Lois, Thomas, Wayne, Betty and Bruce. Later in life, she was united in marriage to the late Lawrence T. Smith. Resulting from this union were four children, Ronald, Ernestine, Paul and Karen. Sallie was preceded in death by her daughter Lois E. Ward, and son Bruce R. Ward.

On October 13, 1974, Sallie was baptized as a Jehovah's Witness, where she served faithfully until her passing. She was a devoted member of the congregation and made her faith a priority in her life. Sallie made many spiritual friends throughout the years and she will be missed by all.

Sallie was an extremely devoted mother and in addition, displayed her commitment to children during her many years of service as a daycare provider. Many of these children became surrogate family members, because of extended stays in the home and their participation in countless family events.

Her love of fashion was well established. When you saw Sister Smith, you knew to expect the most recent clothing trends. She also loved eating in excellent restaurants and playing card games with family members.

She leaves to mourn: four sons, Thomas H. Ward, Wayne H. Ward, Ronald L. Smith and Paul G. Smith; three daughters: Betty D. Mealey, Ernestine M. Smith and Karen L. Saunders; one daughter-in-law, Lisa Smith; ten grandchildren: Terri A. Bradshaw, Tonya M. Saunders, Dawn Ward, Benjamin Freeman, DeLacy Smith, Tiffany L. Smith, Zina Lowery, Tyrone Jackson, Corey Hayes, Cynthea Hayes; and two great grandchildren: Tamirra A. Milton and Trinity M. Smith, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I am truly sorry and sympathize your lost of Sister Smith is what she was known to me. I knew her as a little girl and as i became grown she also watched my daughter very well. I thank Jehovah that one day soon i will be able to see her again maybe sitten at the table talking with my grandmother who was a dear friend of hers. You as her loved ones keep her memory in your hearts for now until we all can see her again. Love you guys.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
