

Sally G. Franklin

May 28, 1928 - August 22, 2010

SALLY GENEVA FRANKLIN (also known as Sugar Plum/Mama/and Grandma), daughter of the late Hattie Peed and John Wesley Smith, was born in Chocowinity, North Carolina on May 28, 1928.

She was the only person from Chocowinity, North Carolina to graduated from Washington High School in 1947 (A fact that she was very proud of). She became a visiting nurse and held employment at Good Samaritan Hospital until she became disabled. She loved to travel, and often told stories about her experiences. Sally married Horace L. Franklin on April 2, 1968 in Washington, North Carolina.

Sally made her earthly departure unto entertain life on Sunday, August 22, 2010 at 4:23 pm. She was a loving Mother and Grandmother, but must of all, She unconditionally loved the Lord. It delighted her when Deacon Arthur visited with communion and prayers. After his visit she seemed to become livelier , because her spirit was lifted up through God. She left this world knowing and feeling that she was loved by her daughter were, "I love you" three simple yet meanings words that were unhesitatingly returned to her.

Her husband preceded her in death in May of 1999, along with her sister, Beatrice and Retha Smith, Lucinda Howard (Lucy), Clara Bell Wiggins (Honey), Bessie Crandall (Pink), George Starkie; and her brother, Dave, William, Noah, Johnny and James Smith..

Sally leaves to cherish her memory; daughter, Sheila Daniels-Little; granddaughter, Teara L. Gee; son-in-law, Richard E. Little; two sister-in law, Dorothy Moales and Marie Daniels; grandson-in- law, Fawad Asad; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Sally will be greatly missed by her family, congregation, friends, neighbors and everyone who came in contact with her. She did not mind giving a helping hand to anyone who was in need.

Sally loved attending to her earthly garden, but now she is working in God's heavenly Garden.
