

Sally F. Harp

January 25, 1938 - February 19, 2019

SALLY A. HARP, daughter of the late Charlie and Ola Meadows was born on January 25, 1938 in South Boston, Virginia. She departed this life on February 19, 2019 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education in South Boston, Virginia and Cleveland, Ohio. Sally met and married, the late, Raymond H. Harp. Out of this union four children were born: Van, Dale, Raymond, Jr, and Gina. She was a licensed Beautician, a Cook, and later a licensed Day Care Provider. Her love and devotion for children's well-being kept her working for 30 years before she retired in 2004.

Sally loved spending time with family and friends, enjoyed dancing, cooking, going to the casino, and collecting elephant figurines.

She was a Christian and had tremendous love faith and love for the Lord. As she would often say, "It will be ok, I don't worry, I just put it in the hands of Lord".

She leaves to mourn: two daughters, Dale Harp-Watkins and Gina Harp-King; two sons, Van Meadows and Raymond Harp, Jr; one son-in-law, Stephen King; two sisters, Martha Betts and Nanny Cook; eleven grandchildren and twenty-four great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

“ Sally will be dearly missed. Following my encounters with Sally, I always walked away with something that I needed, a laugh, a smile, neighborhood news, strength, a push, perseverance, words of wisdom, etc. she seemed to know what. She cared. She was genuine when asking about me and my kids. God bless you. You were so fortunate to have had her so close for so long.

*In loving memory of Sally Harp gone but not forgotten.
Sally will be missed for sure. She lives on in our hearts.
There will never be a day when you won't think of her.
I can't say I know how you feel. But I can relate.
May beautiful memories bring you peace during this difficult time. So sorry for your loss.*
