

Saluda Williams

February 19, 1927 - December 18, 2002

On the morning of Wednesday, December 18, 2002, Saluda Lee Williams entered into eternal peace and rest. She was born in Littleton, North Carolina, and the second of seven daughters, to the late William (Wiggins) and Mary Hardy Lee. She was reared in Littleton and received her education in its public schools. She lived her life in preparation for the long awaited event of Wednesday. Saluda knew her life had been surrendered to Jesus a long time ago. She also knew that service to mankind, through the will of the Father, was a standard by which she lived her life. She was a member of Zion Hill Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland. Since 1953, she has been a member of the Open Door Missionary Baptist Church in Cleveland, Ohio. She enjoyed the love and warmth of her church family before and during her illness. Saluda leaves behind to cherish her memories one son, Thomas Williams, Cleveland, Ohio; granddaughter, Tamara; three grandsons, Thomas, Jr., Kevin, and Jamal; one claimed daughter, Bertha Stewart; two claimed grandchildren, Karen and David; five sisters, Bernice Robinson, Owings Mills, Maryland; Elizabeth Moore, Pikesville, Maryland; Etoile de Hawkins (Vernon), Mitchellville, Maryland; Her eldest sister, Maggie Johnson Predeceased her; other sisters, Hattie Ward and Myrtle Hunt; one daughter-in-law, nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives (oldest living Elizabeth Foster 95) and friends. She enjoyed entertaining family and friends. She was an excellent cook who always had enough for the invited and uninvited. Her hobbies included, gardening, canning, decorating, traveling, dinner parties, and the theatre. She was a sophisticated lady, who was regal and elegant from her stylish hair, beautiful hats, to her matching outfits, jewelry and her high heel shoes. She is going to be missed.
