Words can't begin to explain how much sorrow I feel at the loss of my niece Samantha. I remember the joy I felt knowing that she and my son were born on the same day and how they shared a birthday with my sister Lois. Samantha's smile could light up a room and now her smile will be gone. She will never be forgotten and loved eternally by family and friends. Be bless my sweet Samantha. Know that your memory lives on in your children and each of us.
