

Samuel B. Kelly

May 3, 1932 - February 4, 2002

Samuel Berry Kelly, Sr., was born on May 30, 1932 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was one of ten children born to Connie Ewell Kelly and the late William Kelly, Sr. He departed this life on Monday, February 4, 2002 at the Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland after a lengthy illness. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. During his life he served in the United States Army from September 24, 1951 until September 23, 1955. He was employed in the field of construction and weatherization. In 1975, he met Virginia Ann Braxton and the two were joined in holy matrimony on October 30, 1976. Samuel had a special love for music and will always be remembered for his unique style of dancing and dressing. On numerous occasions, it has been said that he resembled his idol, "James Brown." He leaves to cherish his memory: his beloved wife, Virginia Ann Kelly; two daughters, Yolanda Kelly Day and Tiffany Nicole Kelly; one son, Samuel Berry Kelly, Jr.; two stepdaughters, Joann Braxton-Archie and Georgina Antionette Braxton; three grandchildren, De'Quan Robert Hanna, Jessica Denean Archie and Paul Malik Brown; his beloved mother, Connie Ewell Kelly; four brothers, William Kelly, Jr., Thomas Kelly (his twin brother), Robert Kelly and Odell Kelly; two sisters, Margaret Johnson and Regina Murphy; three sisters-in-law, Charlotte Adams of Baltimore, Maryland, Margaret Morse of Piney River, Virginia and Mary Kelly of Baltimore, Maryland; three brothers-in-law, Charles Braxton of Baltimore, Maryland, John Braxton of Charlottesville, Virginia and Henry Westray of Baltimore, Maryland; three aunts of Baltimore, Maryland;

one uncle of New York; and a host of nieces, nephew, other relatives and friends.
