

Samuel C. Wilder

January 22, 1983 - June 10, 2003

Samuel Carlos Wilder, Jr., son of Sharon Green and Samuel Wilder, Sr., was born on January 22, 1983 in Baltimore, Maryland. Carlos suddenly departed this life on June 10, 2003. "Carlos", as his family loved to call him, received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He truly enjoyed his school activities and all the friends he encountered there. Carlos was very young when he left this life, so he never got the chance to experience a working career. Before departing this life, Carlos joined The Empowerment Temple. He saw that this life had nothing to offer him without the strength of the Lord on his side. Carlos never married or had any children, but he always was surrounded by a host of friends. Carlos leaves to mourn: his mother, Sharon Green; father, Samuel Wilder, Sr.; his older brother, Niles "Gumby" Ringgold; sisters Quimby, Crystal and Rosa; paternal grandparents, Samuel and Elizabeth Wilder; his maternal grandparents, Joseph and Louise Green preceded him in death; niece, Quindara Gasque; nephews Niles Ringgold III and Rodney C. Gasque. Carlos also leaves to mourn a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends to remember him.

“ To The Family of Samuel C. Wilder, Jr.: It is with sympathy that I write. Death is such an enemy of life, and in this world we all must face it one day. I have found a very comforting passage found in the Bible at Acts 24:15, and it states: "And I have hope toward God, which hope these men themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous". I find this passage encouraging, knowing that one day, I will see my loved ones again. I hope that this passage brings solace to the family. With sympathy.##imported-begin##Von Holley##imported-end##
