

Samuel S. Coleman

August 24, 1948 - July 13, 2014

SAMUEL SINCLAIR COLE MAN, son of the late John Henry Coleman and Carrie Frances Beauchamp-Cook was born on August 24, 1948 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on July 13, 2014 after a lengthy illness.

Sammy as he was affectionately known by his family and friends received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools; graduating from Southern High School in 1966. While in high school, he played football and basketball and gained employment at Sam's Meat Market where he worked for over 30 years. Upon graduation from high school, he was gainfully employed by J.E. Smith Box Company of Millersville, MD where he also served as the President of the local union.

Sammy accepted Jesus Christ as his personal savior at an early age. Sammy enjoyed spending his summers with family on the Eastern Shore. He was a fixture in South Baltimore where he grew up. Sammy was an avid sports fan and especially enjoyed watching football, baseball, basketball, tennis, ice hockey, wrestling, boxing and the roller derby. Sammy particularly loved Baltimore's home teams (Ravens and Orioles). In his spare time, he enjoyed spending time with family and friends, cooking, eating, traveling and going to the casino. Sammy made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who had the pleasure of knowing him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man.

Sammy leaves to mourn: his devoted wife, Dale Coleman; his daughter, Tara Coleman; his stepdaughters, Paula Robertson, Rhonda Turner, Audrey Jones and Lynnelle Boyd; sister, Lily Alston; mother-in-law, Agnes Ellis; father-in-law, Dailey Crowder (Willie Mae); sister-in-law, Minnie Boyd; brothers-in-law, William Alston, John Boyd and Arnold Hampton (Tonya); grandson, Marcus Gregg; step-grandchildren, Isaiah, Kendrix, Shania, Keith, Emmanuel, Kolby, Monyé and Makiyah, best friend, Theodore Easton; devoted friend, Dwight Ware and a host of other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by his siblings Mindell, John Henry, Joan and Annette.

“ I am very sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one.. Please take comfort in what the Bible states at (Isaiah 26:19) Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life, we can find comfort in that.

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.
