

Samuel Ernest Walker

July 7, 1927 - June 7, 2006

SAMUEL E. WALKER, Sam as he was known to many, was born eldest of seventeen on July 7, 1927 to the late Lucy and Ernest Walker. Sam received his education in Roanoke, Virginia and later went on to serve in and retire from the United States Army. Sam later wed Annie L. Walker in Fayetteville, North Carolina. They later moved to Baltimore, Maryland where Sam worked and would retire from the United States Postal Service. Sam was a loving husband, and dedicated father of eight children. After the death of his loving wife, Annie, he returned to Fayetteville, where he soon was married to Ms. Bertha Milligan. Sam lived a full and good life, he enjoyed fishing and boating. When he wasn't working hard he really enjoyed being in the kitchen cooking up some "Good eatens" as he would say. Sam touched the lives of many and he knew a lot of "Jokers" as he would call them. Most importantly Sam knew Jesus. We never knew him to fellowship in his early years but who knows a man's heart but God. In his sunset years we had the privilege to see and hear our loved one live out the rest of his days with the testimony that Jesus was his soul salvation. Preceded in death by his loving wife, Annie; one son, Michael, and grandsons, Damon, Sammy, Quinton and (Slugger), Sam leaves behind to mourn: his wife, Bertha; three sons, Charles, Russell and Samuel; four daughters, Delthia, Debora, Chandra and Laurice; three daughters-in-law, Marla, Debbie and Trudy; twenty-one grandchildren, Jacqueline (James), Djebera, Sedonia, Christopher, Thadaeus (DŽaunttŽ), Lorryn, Daryl, Darryle, Erica, Travis, DontŽ, ShantŽ, Krystle, Tony, Dawayne, Peggie Anne, Shawndel, Natalia Cadaisa, Tyquandra and Denira; five brothers, Raymond, Norman, Bernard, Wendell and Mylond; six sisters, Flora, Mary Ann, Dot, Gene, Carolyn and Elaine. He also leaves behind fourteen great-grandchildren who loved him very much and a host of nieces and nephews.

“ To the family of Samuel Walker. I would like to extend my sincere condolences on the lost of your love one. This is the time that we need comfort. "Psalms 55:22" tells us to throw our burdens upon Jehovah. In a time of death we have problems handling the lost of a love one. The one we talk with, laugh with those days are gone for now. "God is Love" and want all to attain life. "John 5:28 & 29" tells us there is going to be resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous. If we are serving the True God we can look forward to that hope. "Where death will be swallow up forever Isaiah 25:8". We can all take comfort that God promise will come true. Please except these words as comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Phyllis Duvall##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy that we never get used to. But the Bible gives us hope for a resurrection at John 5:28-29 where Jesus promises that, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This scripture has brought comfort to many. I hope that this will comfort you as well.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mr. Walker I offer my sincere sympathy. At sorrowful times such as these we can look to the one who loves us so much, Jehovah God, to find strength and hope. 2nd Cor:1,2,3 say, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation. Yes, God knows the deep and wrenching pain we feel when we lose a loved one, and he has purposed to erase such pain from our lives by resurrection our loved ones back to life. Acts 24:15 tells us that there is going to be a resurrection. May those thoughts bring hope to your hearts, as you remember the good times you shared with your loved one.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##
