“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To The Family of Mr. Foster: I am sorry for your great loss. I send the entire family my condolences. However, since Mr. Foster was a church going man, he would have liked you all to take comfort from the Bible. Isaiah 33:24 talks about a time when "no resident will say, 'I am sick'". Also, John 5:28,29 speaks about a time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". Thus, there is much comfort to be taken from the scriptures. Now we must wait on Jehovah God to fulfill these promises and take away our "tears from outcry and pain". (Rev. 21:4).##imported-begin##Kendra##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mr. Foster, please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of a father, son, brother, uncle and friend. Even though I didn't know Mr. Foster personally, as part of the human family, when anyone grieves, we all grieve. It shouldn't matter if we knew the person or not; we all know the pain this enemy, death causes and the void it leaves. In reading his obituary, it was good to know that Mr. Foster loved God. No doubt he read the bible and has used it to comfort others who mourned as well. I don't know of any other book that's better than the bible to use in difficult times like these. If I may share a scripture with you it would be at Isaiah 26:19 where we are promised, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust!" No doubt we can be comforted by knowing that we WILL see our loved ones again here on the earth.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##
