

Samuel Holmes

July 8, 1952 - August 7, 2004

Samuel Holmes, son of the late Robert Holmes and Flossie Fickling Holmes, was born on July 8, 1952 in Denmark, South Carolina. He departed this life suddenly on August 7, 2004. Sam received his education at the Thomas Jefferson High School in Brooklyn, New York. He was often featured in the Daily Newspaper as one of Thomas Jefferson High's outstanding football players. Sam received a scholarship to attend Fort Lewis College in Durango, Colorado where he received a BA degree in Arts. Sam enlisted in the United States Air Force where he served as an Occupational Therapy Technician. It was said that Sgt. Holmes consistently displayed a dedication to the mission above what was necessary to get the job done. Sam met and married Debra Hamil and from this union two children were born, Samuel Frandin Holmes I, and Nukima Suzanne Holmes. Sam accepted Christ and united with Nazarene Baptist Church on April 30, 2000 under the pastorship of Rev, James Thompson. Sam traveled extensively. He made numerous friends wherever he went. He was always friendly, willing to help whom he could. Sam was a good listener. He could engage in a conversation to the extent that you thought he was your personal therapist. It was his desire to reunite with his children and grandchildren to take a family portrait. He was proud of the fact that he was able to see one of his granddaughters being born. Samel leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Flossie Holmes, two children, Samuel and Nukima; seven grandchildren, Olyssia, Jazmin, Samuel F. Jr., Samecka, Sakeido, Samuel III, Samuel Jr.; one sister, Hattie Allen; two brothers, Alvin and Willie Holmes; two aunts, Nettie Dowling, Georgia Clark; one uncle, George Holmes; one uncle-in-law, Willie Clark; two aunts-in-law, Lessie Holmes and Ada Holmes; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends, one devoted friend and confidante Val Ervin.
