

Samuel Jackson

December 17, 1952 - December 23, 2007

SAMUEL JACKSON, SR., the beloved son of the Ella Mae Hayes-Jackson and George Jackson, Sr., was born on December 17, 1952 in Chester, South Carolina and departed this life on December 23, 2007 after a brief illness. Samuel attended Baltimore City public schools and graduated from City College High School. Upon graduation, Samuel got a job with the Federal Government working with NSA Agency as a Logistics Tech. Sam was loved by many and leaves to mourn: his father and stepmother, Mrs Cheryl Jackson; two sisters, Debbie (Curtis) and Shirelle; two brothers, James and Kerry; five aunts, Mammie, Jannie, Sidney, Ethel Lee and Sally Bell; four uncles, John-Robert, Henry, Arthur and Samuel; a host of cousins, nieces and nephews. Samuel was truly blessed. He has two life-friends, Valorie and Shirley; three Sons, Carlivelt, Samuel Jr. and Steven; and a daughter, Sherron. Samuel was a devoted father and caring friend. He also had seven grandchildren.
