

Samuel Joyner

July 3, 1920 - October 18, 2009

SAMUEL JOYNER, son of the late James and Surpanie Joyner, was born on July 3, 1920 in Plymouth, North Carolina. He departed this life on October 18, 2009. He received his education at Plymouth High School in North Carolina. He left North Carolina and went to Norfolk, Virginia, where he met and married the former Janie Dawley. Out of this union four children were born: Roy Joyner, Kenneth Joyner, Patricia Joyner-Syms and Pamela Joyner-Bailey. Roy, Kenneth and Patricia preceded him in death. He left Norfolk to go to New York city, where he attended Brooklyn Community College. Upon completion of his education, he became a full-time employee for the state hospital as a counselor and remained for twenty-five years. In New York he met and married Elsie Roberson. From this union, one son was born, Jonathan Joyner. Samuel made numerous friends wherever he went. He enjoyed eating his meals out, where he could socialize with people. He will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Elsie Joyner; one son, Jonathan Joyner Sr.; one daughter, Pamela Joyner-Bailey; two grandsons, Jonathan Joyner Jr. (Levena Joyner) and Kenneth Spence; three granddaughters, Natasha King, Towanda Davis and Lisa Collins; four great-grandchildren, Nicole Desiree King, Jaycen Joyner, Paige Joyner and Payten Joyner; one sister, Captoria Joyner-Smith; one brother, Roy Joyner (Sylvia Joyner); nieces, nephews,, and a host of other relatives and friends.
