

Samuel Lee Lathan

May 16, 1944 - March 12, 2003

Samuel Lee Lathan, known as “ Sam-O” to his family and friends was the son of the late Annie Blanch Carr. He was born on May 16, 1944 in Edgecombe County, North Carolina. He departed this life with us on March 12, 2003 after a lengthy illness. He received his education at Conetoe High School in Conetoe, N.C. Upon completion of his education, he moved to Baltimore City where he married the former Shirley Taylor. “Sam-O” spent his last 15 years working for the city of Baltimore where he made numerous friends. A happy-go-lucky guy, “Sam-O’ will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Shirley Lathan; stepfather, James Carr; four sisters, Lucyrene Harrison, Riverdale, Md., Gloria Clay, Teretha Carr, and Patricia F. Carr, all of Baltimore, Md.; five brothers, Oscar Latham, Speed, N.C., Walter Carr, James Earl Carr, Milton Carr, Vance Carr, all of Baltimore, Md.; five sisters-in-law, Martha Lathan, Creola Carr, Betty Carr, Sherry Carr and Beatrice Carr; two brothers-in-law, Sylvester Harrison, Marty Clay; ten nieces, seven nephews, four grand nieces, six grand nephews, aunts, uncles and a host of relatives and friends.

“ *To the family of (Samuel Lathan) It will be the little things that you all will remember,the quiet moments, the smiles, the laughter. And although it may seem hard right now, it will be the memories of these little things that will help to push away the pain and bring back the smiles again.
