

Samuel E. Mason

September 27, 1930 - October 1, 2019

SAMUEL EDISON MASON, the 15th son of Fester and Louvenier Johnson Mason was born on September 27, 1930 in Gaston, North Carolina. He was the 15th child of 17 siblings, 14 of which preceded his death. Samuel departed this life on October 1, 2019.

After many years in North Carolina, he moved to Baltimore, Maryland. Samuel was gainfully employed by Bethlehem Steel. Some years later, he took another job at Paddon Scaffold Company. He would later retire from this company.

Samuel met and married the love of his life, Beulah L. Dortch in 1960. Though they spent a lifetime together, and despite the fact that their union did not yield any children, they became dedicated to their many nieces and nephews.

He leaves to cherish his memory his wife of 60 years, Beulah Mason; two sisters, Herdell Hudgins and Aileen Allen; two sisters-in-law, Martha Wagstaff and Georgia Stuckey; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
