

Samuel Leo Stokes

September 20, 1948 - June 11, 2014

SAMUEL LEO STOKES was the third child born to Julia and Herman Stokes Sr. on September 20, 1948, in Baltimore, Maryland. Sam (as we called him) left Samuel Gompers High School to attend trade school. Upon completing trade school Sam became a certified welder. Sam held several jobs as a welder. The majority of his time as a welder was with AAI Corporation that produced various items for the government.

Sam loved people, having a good time and a good laugh. He was very well liked by his many friends and also by his bosses on the various jobs he held. Sam had an open and giving heart, which made those of us who knew him feel good to be in his presence. Sam also had a love for animals, mostly dogs and pigeons. He truly loved the tippler and roller pigeons that would put on a show while flying in a flock together.

Our beloved Sam left his physical behind and journeyed to the other side on June 11, 2014. He leaves behind cherished memories with his loving mother Julia; four brothers, Herman Jr., Larry, Lamont and Gregory; sister, Karen; late beloved sister's son, Bryan; a devoted friend, Mae; two sisters-in-law, Janice and Jerri; nephews, nieces and a host of other relatives and friends.

Sam has journeyed to the other side and now he is with his son, Erik; his father, Herman Sr.; his brother, Rodney; his sister, Phyllis and a host of other relatives and friends.
